日前因郭清館遊行被捕之同學五十餘人，於一星期前已全數釋放，彼等因紀念該次事件，於前日(十七日)上午在姊妹樓聚齊，往遊臥佛寺，九時左右城內外同學到會者三十四人，然因陰雨不止，故臨時改在男校體育館內，討論，遊戲，中歐時以燒餅果腹，較之獄中同吃窩頭，大有今昔之感，至下午城內同學始乘五時汽車返城云。

聯絡感情促進合作 新聞學會將設各地分會

該系三四年級同學將舉行聯歡
新聞學系同學間感情素稱融洽，良以新聞事業之從業者，必須彼此聯絡合作，以收同舟共濟之效，切磋商研之功。本校新聞學系現有組織，雖包括該系畢業同學及歷來教職員在內，事實上校外會員，頗乏聯絡機會。且比年以來，畢業同學日多，初出校門，有賴校友提携幫助之處不少。故咸感各地從業校友，亦有設一小組織之必要。昨據新聞學會主席表示：「此舉甚有必妥，組織辦法雖尚未成議，惟大約由本會校友按居在地列成表格，然後函請各該地畢業同學一人負責組織之。此表格或印單頁，或附印於即擬出版之新聞學會會刊，尚不一定。總望於學期結束前將此事辦理妥善」云。

公演回春之曲

本校狂熱話劇社，自決定公演白話及回春之曲二劇後，即積極於本週星期四下午，及星期五晚，假禮堂排演，成績異常滿意，導演趙品潔君，認爲成熟期已近，故由負責人商討，已決定於六月五日晚七時，假貝公樓禮堂演出，屆時熱鬧情形，可以想見云。

Richards, Noted Critic, To Speak On Thursday

Professor Ivor A. Richards of Cambridge University, England, will give a lecture on "Metaphor as Related to Literary Criticism on the One Hand and Meaning on the Other" this Thursday May 21, during the University Lecture hour at 4:15 p.m. at McBrier 103. The lecture is sponsored by the University Lectures Committee and the Western Languages Department.

The well-known literary critic is now visiting the China Branch of the Orthological Institute of England which is concerned with developing Basic English as a medium for international communication. This is Prof. Richards' second visit to Peiping. He was visiting professor at Yenching in the autumn of 1930. One result of his last visit was his book "Mencius on the Mind" which develops his logic of language as illustrated in Chinese. The last chapter of this book contains very interesting ideas about the problems of translation, ideas which represent a development of those for which Prof. Richards is best known through "The Meaning of Meaning", of which he was joint author with Prof. C.K.Ogden of Cambridge. Prof. Richards is even better known for his numerous books on literary criticism, the last being "Coleridge on the Feelings".

"Full Speed Ahead" For Annual Homecoming Day

Will Also Celebrate Stuart Birthday On June 24 With Gala Program

The annual Homecoming Day is approaching, June 24! With the desire and hope that alumni who will then visit the campus may find a most interesting program awaiting them, a committee of ten, under the chairmanship of Mr. Chuan Shao-wen, now of the Kinchong Bank, Peiping, has been formed to arrange active preparations for the event. The day is to be a real reunion of and among alumni, faculty members, friends, and students of Yenching University.

This year's Homecoming Day is not merely the reunion of people. Concurrently it is the sixtieth birthday of Dr. J.L. Stuart, president of the University, who has spent scores of eventful years in the interest of Christian higher education for Chinese students and China at large. For this reason, the annual Homecoming Day, held heretofore on the third weekend of April, is this year shifted to June 24.

Regardless of geographical distance, invitations and announcements of the double event have been sent to all alumni. "We have about 2500 alumni scattered all over the world," said Mr. Li Yin-tang, secretary of the Alumni Bureau, Headoffice, Peiping. "In Peiping alone there are no less than 500 alumni, a little less than one-fourth of the total number. At least 200 of them are expected to be seen on the campus that day."

Said Mr. Hsieh Ching-sheng, secretary of the Homecoming Day Committee, "There will be a grand dinner party in honor of Dr. Stuart on Homecoming Eve, where faculty members and guests from Peiping and Tientsin will be invited."

A University holiday will mark the opening of the day. As experiences in the past have shown that visiting alumni could not arrive at the campus early, no formal meeting whatsoever will be held in the morning. This incidentally will give the early visitors an ample chance to enjoy reunions and make new acquaintanceships. Dr. Stuart will be at home expecting the return of his academic sons and daughters.

Exhibitions of every sort, from academic studies to personal hobbies, from dogs to babies, are expected to be on view for the day. "The College of Natural Sciences will exhibit its research works, problems, and apparatus to the public," said Mr. Tsui Yi-lin, one of the committee members in charge of the exhibition section. "We also expect to have similar exhibits from other colleges and departments. Personal hobbies, such as stamps and curios will be seen, but so far no collections have been received from definite persons, it being still early."

Moreover, there will be the exhibition of collections of books, Chinese and foreign, by the Library. An alumni luncheon, probably at the Wei Hsiu Yuan, will be given. Men and women students will stage athletic demonstrations in the afternoon, after which Dr. Stuart will entertain formally the visiting alumni and friends at tea.

In the evening, the Students' Self-Government Association will present dramatic plays, including one modern Chinese drama and two Kuo Chu (National Ancient Drama)," said Mr. Hsieh, the secretary.

Mr. Li Yin-tang thinks there will be such innovations as Baby and Dog Shows. He further expects the Students' Association to exhibit its documents of sufficient importance regarding the recent Student Movement and Abnormal Period Educational System.

A council of alumni representatives will be summoned on June 25, to discuss problems regarding both the University and alumni associations, and other issues, Mr. Li concluded.

Aside from all these celebrations and exhibitions on the campus, alumni far-and-wide who are unable to come back to their alma mater will hold celebrations at their respective places. The Yenta Echo and other alumni publications will publish special issues on that day, primarily as a token of respect and remembrance to Dr. Stuart. It is expected that a financial campaign for "Dr. Stuart's Scholarship" will be launched by alumni living at different places.

Members of the committee are: Mr. Chuan Shao-wen, chairman; Mr. Hsieh Ching-sheng, secretary; Mr. Tsui Yi-lin and Mr. Chao Cheng-hsin in charge of exhibitions; Mr. Chen Hung-hsun, Mr. Cheng Lin-ch'uang and Mr. Han Ch'ing-lien, in charge of entertainments; Mr. Hsia Yun and Miss T'an Ch'ao-ying, in charge of dinner parties; Mr. Li Yin-tang, in charge of athletic demonstrations.

S.G.A. Free School Helps Wipe Out Illiteracy; Will Start Fund Campaign Soon

"Our purpose of establishing this school is to abolish the illiterate, to help achieve universal education, and to awake the people," said Miss Chao Chih-hsuan, president of the Free School established by the Yenta Students Self-Government Association.

The staff members are Miss Ho Ch'iao-sheng, director of studies; Mr. Hsu Hai-chao, director of general affairs; Mr. Shen Kuo-chen, the doyen; and Miss Wang Chun-hou, the proctor. Most of them are Yenching students.

The official inauguration ceremony of this free school will take place on May 25 at No. 22, Sin Chuang Hutung. There are now 110 students, men, women and children, registered, and they are divided into three classes: for adults, for women, and for children. Girls over 15 years old will go to the women's class because of their traditional concept between men and women.

The adults will study Chinese, training in common sense and citizenship, mathematics, abacus. The children will learn Chinese, mathematics, singing, drawing and handicraft work.

The teachers, nearly all of them Yenching students volunteering services, are: Misses Chang Yu-lian, Wang Mei-ying, Hsu Tzu-mei, Chen Yu-ying Fan Hsi-chun, Ho Hui, Wang Lung-pao, Chang Tsung-hsieh, Lu Chung-ying, Shen Wen-fei, Chow Tsi-yi, Li Chih-jen, Li Chih-ching and Messrs. Ke Li, Wang Chao-chen, Lu Shih-chun, Ke Chia-lung, Kang Hsi-chen, Wu Te-yu and Hsu Hai-chiao.

The Free School is now planning contributions for its maintenance in the nearest future. According to the authorities' estimation, they need about $510, but they receive only $300 from the Yenching Students Self-Government Association. They also want old books and daily newspapers in very simple languages for use in their small library.

THE LETTER BOX

WHOSE FAULT?

The Editor,

This morning I came out on a Yenching bus about 11 a.m. I was the only passenger and set directly behind the driver. The driver was sounding his horn when suddenly an old woman and a child ran directly in front of the bus. Both were knocked down by it.

The woman and the child apparently were spectators of a funeral which was passing at the time at the corner outside of Hsi Chih Men just before the bridge across the water.

It would have been impossible for any driver to have stopped more promptly than the driver did. I feel I should make this statement as I was the only passenger in the bus.
